Summary

I love entrepreneurship and helping others transform their businesses! As a software and DevOps engineer, I'm passionate about the online Food, E-commerce, Health, tour & travel, food delivery, and Construction industries. I'm looking to connect with like-minded people who share my passion and have expertise in these areas.

In addition to my knowledge in these industries, I also have expertise in Leadership, Branding, Marketing, Sales, Strategic Planning, Team Building, and Leadership Development.
